SAVE meeting: Welcome in the Principality of Liechtenstein

As the annual SAVE meeting in Cavalese (Trentino) scheduled for September had to be postponed to a later date because of numerous time clashes, we now invite all SAVE officials and interested persons to participate in the meeting taking place on November 7-9, 2003

in the Principality of Liechtenstein. Starting point is Hotel Kulm at Triesenberg high up in the Rhine valley with spectacular views (see photo). The program will take place in the entire border region Liechtenstein – Austria – Germany – Switzerland. Journey there via airport Zurich. More details after registration.

Highlights of the meeting:

- Multimedia show on Walser life and return from alpine pasture, Triesenberg (FL).
- Conservation project "Ribbel maize" and national vine variety garden, Salez (CH)
- Dinner in Schattenburg Castle Feldkirch (A), famous for its Wiener schnitzel.
- Trip to the iNatura in Dornbirn (A), Austrias most modern nature museum.
- Ceremony at the Castle of Sargans (CH), 10th anniversary of SAVE Foundation
- Trip to the farm park with the broadest diversity in Germany, Ueberlingen/Bodensee

The ceremony of the 10th anniversary of the SAVE Foundation is going to take place in the Castle of Sargans, Hall of the old Count. A medieval banquet will be rounded by several attractions.

The Castle of Sargans was built as fortress in the year 1282. Today, it offers excellent possibilities for special festivities. The Monitoring Institute, by the way, was founded here eight years ago.
