
Dr. Pal Hajas

Agriculture University, Godollo, Hungary. Master's Degree, Agronomy and Crop Science, Livestock, Farm Management 1964 – 1968. Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.), Applied Animal genetics, 1980 – 1984

Pal Hajas is deeply involved in rural development in the rural development of Hungary. He fosters innovation in family farms and promotes innovative ideas to support the survival of small rural villages. He participates in multi-level training of farmers, village tourism and hospitality providers as well as university students. Pal Hajas is representant of the Hungarian LEADER LAGs in the European Rural Networks Assembly in Brussels.